Feeding a Family

Since 2000, HHI has had the opportunity to conduct 600 workshops, equipping more than 30,000 people to feed themselves and their families for LIFE! But the impact does not stop there...each of these people are now empowered to teach others, making the impact of this ministry exponential.

Frederick (pictured above) is just one of the lives changed by this training. He is a community leader and retired school teacher living in the Rift Valley region of Kenya. After participating in the two day workshop he told us, “We have all just been pretending to be farmers... now we will go back to our farms as real farmers!”

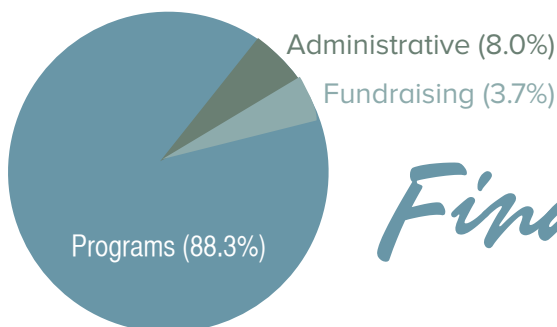

Beatrice, 37, is a mother of four. She was very thankful for the training as it provided hope for a better farm harvest. She was all smiles as she said, “My home is just over the fence to this church compound. I am going to begin my own garden tomorrow and will be comparing my harvest with this demonstration site.”

These are just two of the stories we could tell of the thousands of lives that have been changed. Just imagine if each of these people share what they have learned with just three more people! The impact is exponential! Will you join us in the fight to end hunger and Feed A Family For Life?

“We want to thank Women of Hope and every individual who has contributed and has been of immense support to the growth and development of God’s Will Vocational and Technical Institute.”

“The highlight of the trip for me was seeing the boxes our church had packed being handed out. It was a very special moment.”

Living a Dream

Rhoda Bosibori Bikundo is 90 years old. She lives in the Nyamesocho village in Kisii, Kenya. After Healing Hands International conducted an agricultural workshop in 2017, Rhoda was a vital part of starting the Samaria Church of Christ in the community.

Rhoda has many children and grandchildren. When asked how many she had she said, “I have so many children...it is a difficult question for me to answer...to differentiate those who have passed away and those that are still alive.” She expressed her thanks to HHI for the positive transformation that has come to the community. “It has always been my dream to see water flowing in this community but never thought it will become a reality in my lifetime.” She continued, “since I was a child, I have walked many kilometers to the neighboring Maasai community to get water. Almost every year, there has been intercommunal war between us over it.” Through these communal clashes she lost two of her children. One, Thomas Masore, is “lucky to be alive” but lost one of his eyes during the fight for water.

“I am so thankful to HHI for preaching peace and salvation, for bringing life to this community.” Thomas Masore (Rhoda’s son) was among those who were baptized into Christ as a result of the water well in the community. The water well now serves the entire community and neighboring Maasai village. Praise God for new beginnings!
